Cordovan Leather was the perfect floor stain for my dog room. Nina and Sprog share the "dog" couch.

When I decided to launch a new career in pet care out of my home, one of the first decisions I made was to remove most of my carpeting and go with finished concrete floors. This was based on the obvious advantage that concrete floors have over carpets when it comes to pet clean-up.

I searched the internet to locate vendors in my area. I called and left a couple of messages with vendors, but when I called Decorative Crete Worx, I got a person, Dave Gonzales. Dave answered all of my questions and offered to come to my home and look at my job that very day. He ran a little late, but called me to let me know he was delayed, and showed up as promised. This was a pattern that persisted throughout my relationship with this very excellent vendor. From the time I decided to hire Decorative Crete Worx, until clean-up was completed and final payment made, I was kept fully informed of all schedules, progress, delays and matters concerning my project. I particularly appreciated all of the time and attention given to my project which was quite important to me as it related to the start of my new pet-sitting business.

My job was started on time, the crews showed up and left when I was told they would, the work was done precisely to my specifications, and I now have floors to accommodate my own pets and the guests I take in for my business. I am very appreciative of all of the good work and effort put into my project by Dave and his very polite and courteous crew.

I still have a couple of carpeted rooms, and as my business grows, I certainly plan to have Decorative Crete Works back to finish turning my home into a place where pets and people can live neatly and cleanly on floors that are both practical and beautiful.

I heartily recommend this excellent company to you and welcome anyone who would like to check out the work done in my home, or equally anyone needing a home away from home for their pets during vacations or during other out-of-town occasions. Please feel free to contact me at the numbers listed above for more information.

Sincerely,
Kathy Love
